Please note

- Following guidance set out in DCSF Regulation No. 2239, 2007, parents can be charged by schools and academies for all in-school Lewisham Music programmes with the exception of whole class ensemble tuition which is required to take place as a curriculum offer during the normal school day.
- Looked After Children should not be charged for individual or group tuition during the school day under guidance set out in DCSF Regulation No. 2239, 2007. Please contact the Lewisham Music office for further information on supporting the costs of lessons for pupils in this category.
- Lewisham Music recommends use of Pupil Premium to reduce or remove charges of music lessons for eligible children.
- Schools will be charged for damage to instruments beyond normal wear and tear. Lost instruments will be charged at replacement cost.
